Self-Certification under CRS and FATCA Personal Customers and Sole Traders

To be completed by individuals including personal customers and sole traders. This form can also be completed by controlling persons of companies, where they are required to certify under the Business Customers and Non Personal Customers CRS and FATCA Self Certification Form.

Purpose

This form is designed to capture an individual's residency for tax purposes and whether they are a U.S. citizen.

Customer Information Notice:

Under Irish Tax Legislation (Section 891E, Section 891F and Section 891G of the Taxes Consolidation Act 1997 refers), financial institutions including KBC are obliged to collect and review information on customer's tax residency and their U.S. status under FATCA. If you, the relevant Account Holder, has a tax residency outside of the Republic of Ireland or are a U.S. citizen, we are required to report the following details in respect of all accounts that you hold with us to the Irish Revenue: name, address, date of birth, place of birth, account number, U.S. citizenship and/or jurisdiction(s) of tax residence, Tax Identification Number (TIN), account balance at year end and interest payments made in the calendar year. Irish Revenue will report this data to the tax authorities of each relevant participating country. If due to a change in circumstances, any certification on this form becomes inaccurate, please advise us promptly.

You can find more information on http://www.revenue.ie/en/business/aeoi/

As a financial institution, we are not in a position to provide tax advice. If you have any questions about this form or defining your tax residency or U.S. citizenship status, please contact your tax advisor, Irish Revenue or your domestic tax authority.
